Question Two:

Conduct an interview and write a summary (Individual activity)

Interview an adult about his or her career choice. You may interview a teacher at your school, a parent or family member or another adult whose career you are interested in knowing more about.

- What is their career?
- Find out why they chose that career.
- When did they decide on their career choice?
- What did they study?
- Where did they study?
- What other skills did they need to learn?
- Do they enjoy their work?
- What other work can they do in the same career field?
- Do they constantly work at improving or updating their skills?
- What advice would they offer to you while you are deciding on a career?

Write a summary of your findings once you have completed the interview.

Your teacher will assess you using the following checklist.

RUBRIC
